Boone County Cooperative Extension Center Meeting Room Policy

THIS IS AN APPLICATION FOR THE USE OF A MEETING ROOM.

Please initial boxes as policy is read. Incomplete forms will not be accepted.
The contact person signing the form understands and accepts all policies of use of the Extension Center Meeting rooms.
The Boone County Cooperative Extension Center's meeting rooms are intended primarily for Extension sponsored functions, but interrelated groups of the Extension program and other non-profit community organizations may schedule the meeting rooms. A request by a non-profit organization must further one or more of the missions of the Boone County Extension District set forth under KRS 164.610 related to agriculture, home economics, and rural and community life. The Board or any of the affiliate organizations accepts no responsibility for any loss, injury or damage to persons or property arising from facilities use. The Cooperative Extension System is an equal opportunity organization with respect to education and employment. Educational programs of the Cooperative Extension Service serve all people regardless of race, color, age, sex, religion, disability, or national origin. Signing this form indicates that you have read and agree with these regulations.
1. Prioritized Use: The following groups receive priority scheduling.
1. Boone County Extension Agent led meetings, classes and programs
2. Boone County Extension Affiliated Groups: District Board, Extension Councils,
Extension advisory groups, Extension organizations and the University of Kentucky.
These groups have first priority and reserve the right to rooms with short notice, which may result in rooms being changed or cancelled. While we try to accommodate reserved rooms, we do not guarantee specific rooms. If it is necessary for the Extension Service to use a room that has been reserved, Extension will try to accommodate the reservations that were previously made.
3. Extension Support Groups: Groups outside the umbrella of Boone County Extension but whose programs interact with the Extension Service.
Examples are: Farm Bureau, County government, Board of Education, etc.
4. Other County Non-profit Organizations of civic or educational nature.
of civic of cadeatolia liatate.
