Boone County Conservation District's

Dead Farm Animal Removal Reimbursement Program

In accordance with its mission, the Boone County Conservation District (BCCDKY) offers reimbursement of up to 50% of the cost for dead farm animal removal. Applicants of the program must meet the eligibility requirements below and BCCDKY payments will not exceed $150 per application. This program is available until June 30, 2021 or until funds are no longer available.

Purpose:

The purpose of this program is to assist landowners with the cost of proper disposal of farm animals. Improper disposal of animals can negatively impact the health of herds, humans, and natural resources including water quality. Reimbursement funds are meant to ensure that landowners are able to utilize best management practices for the protection of natural resources.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Livestock must be from a privately owned property in Boone County
- You must use a licensed hauler for animal removal
- You may apply for reimbursement of no more than two animals per calendar year

To Receive Reimbursement Funds:

- Complete the application on page two of this form
- Return application and receipts from a licensed animal hauler within three weeks of removal service via email or USPS using the address below
